

Position Available

Senior Researcher

Centre for Community Based Research (CCBR)
www.communitybasedresearch.ca

The Centre for Community Based Research (CCBR) is seeking a Senior Researcher who will lead community-based research projects which are community-driven, participatory, and action-oriented. The Senior Researcher will have solid research credentials in the academic, government, and NGO sectors and a demonstrated commitment to community-based research, including knowledge mobilization and community facilitation. Content expertise in newcomer, mental health, and disability issues is an asset as is a proven track record in program evaluation.

This is a full-time permanent position based in Waterloo, Ontario and includes benefits. See www.communitybasedresearch.ca for more information about CCBR.

Requirements

- PhD or Master's degree in a relevant field or equivalent experience/training
- Conceptual background in theories of equity, anti-oppression, or justice/peace
- Active involvement in social and health sectors
- Writing and publishing record
- University level training in research methods
- Experienced in qualitative and quantitative research and evaluation
- Able to lead multiple research teams, each of diverse members (including students), to successful project completion

To Apply

Qualified candidates are encouraged to forward a resume and cover letter via e-mail to general@communitybasedresearch.ca by August 30, 2020.

About Us

CCBR is a non-profit organization located on the University of Waterloo campus. Our mission is to build more responsive and supportive communities especially for people with limited access to power and opportunity. Since 1982 CCBR has conducted over 400 projects that have addressed a range of topics. People who work at CCBR are passionate about bringing people together to imagine and build innovative solutions to pressing societal issues.

CENTRE FOR COMMUNITY
BASED RESEARCH

190 Westmount Road North
Waterloo, ON N2L 3G5
Phone: (519) 885-1460 ext. 25294
general@communitybasedresearch.ca
www.communitybasedresearch.ca